

Data publication guidance for the MOSL CEO Quarterly Market Review and monthly market data

Purpose

The CEO Quarterly Market Review and monthly market data has been published by MOSL into the public domain.

Trading parties and other commentators are welcome to share information from the report, in both a graphical and written format, provided they adhere to the following guidelines. In the event that these guidelines are not adhered to, MOSL will seek the removal of this information from your communications.

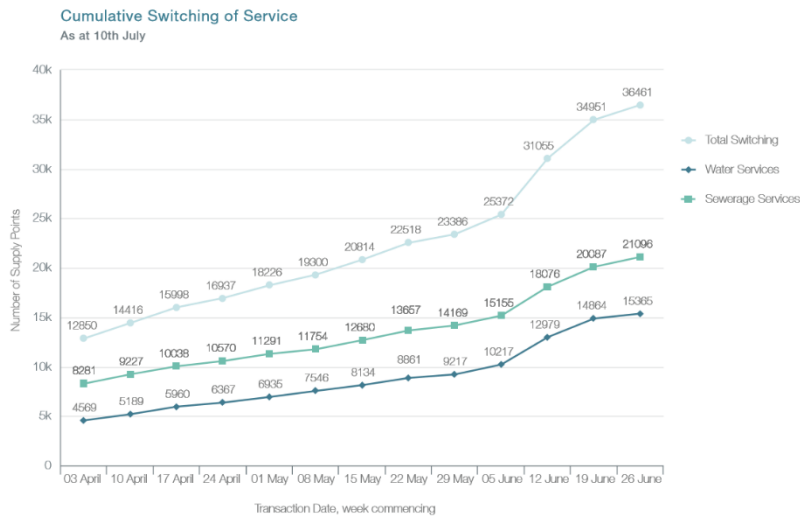

Guidelines

When using information from the MOSL CEO Quarterly Market Review and the MOSL monthly market data publications, MOSL requires that:

- MOSL is appropriately credited as the data source;
- The date of publication of the data by MOSL is referenced;
- A link to the original data source on the MOSL website is clearly displayed.

Examples

Graphical example

Source: MOSL , CEO Quarterly Market Review, <date>, <hyperlink to MOSL website>

Written example

“The total switching figure for 26 June was 36,461 as reported by MOSL in its monthly market data¹”

¹MOSL 2017, CEO Quarterly Market Review, accessed on <date>, <hyperlink>

Queries

If you have any queries regarding these guidelines, please contact the Communications Mailbox:
comms@mosl.co.uk